On this website page, I included my third paper, a synthesis for my researched paper, which was a research paper, as well as my brainstorming worksheet that I used to get an idea for my research paper. My synthesis will demonstrate a broad understanding of my topic for my researched paper. My brainstorming worksheet demonstrated an inherent background into my topic.

An example of a learning goal for this phase learning objective three. The brainstorming worksheet guided my understanding of drafting to get specific with ideas and then get a more broad perspective. I did a good job of being obvious of my intentions to describe my analysis, but needed to be more creative in terms of finding a good website.

Another learning goal during this phase was learning objective six. I learned the importance of finding credible and relevant sources in my essay. I did a good job of finding relevant sources, but I think there were more unscholarly sources than scholarly ones, so they were less credible.

The next learning goal for this phase is learning objective seven. I did a good job partially synthesizing the sources incorporated with other sources all together, but I needed to improve on better summarizing the sources in a less rudimentary way.

The last learning goal for this phase is learning objective eight. I did properly cite the sources, and I don't think I need to improve on it anymore.
